Making sure you hit the ground running

To ensure you obtain maximum return from your event management investment, our Client Services team is on hand to ensure your Eventsforce solution is set up to accurately reflect and support the needs of your business. From creating the right custom domains and bespoke templates to helping you integrate with existing systems and internal processes, the team provide a framework for you to start running your events successfully. They will save you time and free-up your technical resources for other projects.

Giving you the skills you need to run successful events

Your events are important to you and they're important to the Client Services team too! Their aim is to provide you with the support, training, guidance and skills needed to use your Eventsforce technology to its maximum, and really make your events shine. With their help you can quickly and confidently start running your own events, safe in the knowledge that you have the capability to meet and surpass all of your event targets and objectives.

Guaranteeing your long term success

If you work with our Client Services team, they aren't just with you short term or just for your first event. To guarantee your long term event success they will continue to work with you until you have achieved all of your event and business goals, and if necessary, can continue to work with you according to your unique business requirements.
